It's Not Funny – The Risks of Ethnic Humor

Chris Rock, Carlos Mencia, Margaret Cho, Jeff Foxworthy and others have gained fame and fortune from ethnic humor. But Michael Richards, George Lopez and others have been criticized for their use of racially charged language.

Sara Armstrong is an experienced speaker, trainer and presenter. In this seminar she discusses the risks of using ethnic humor in your professional or personal life. Even when you and your audience share an ethnic or cultural background, such humor can be offensive.

This seminar is plain talk about a difficult subject. Her skills as a speaker and passion as an advocate for improving cross cultural communication make an for exciting and stimulating experience.
