Mahatma Gandhi's Seven Deadly Sins

Mohandas Karamachand Gandhi, one of the most influential figures in modern social and political activism, considered these traits to be the most spiritually perilous to humanity.

In this workshop, these seven behavior patterns are examined from the Christian perspective. Using relevant scripture references and real life examples, the importance of these timeless words makes for wonderful conversation and spiritual renewal.

- Wealth without Work
- Pleasure without Conscience
- Science without Humanity
- Knowledge without Character
- Politics without Principle
- Commerce without Morality
- Worship without Sacrifice
